Schools gird for more cuts in size of staff

By BILL WINTER
Editor

To cope with inflation and enrollment trends, Granite City schools drastically reduced their staff size a year ago but—after resignations and retirements—were able to find jobs for all the tenured teachers given dismissal notices.

Another set of honorable dismissals is being readied for Tuesday, March 25, when a public hearing on the topic will be held at 7 p.m., followed by a Board of Education meeting at about 7:30. There will be no March 18 meeting.

Effective at the end of the 1979-80 school year, the new dismissals are being planned due to economic reasons, officials said at Tuesday night's Board of Education meeting. They mentioned that rumors about the severity may be exceeding the actual scope of the cutbacks.

Although the school district closed three grade schools last summer to reduce overall operating costs, it is still in a difficult financial condition: $65,000 was ordered Tuesday night to be transferred from invested funds maturing March 13 into the building fund.

As was the case a year ago, notice is to be given this month—at least 60 days prior to the end of the spring term—to teachers subject to dismissal in June.

Once again, every effort will be made during the spring and summer to find 1980-81 positions for tenured teachers being squeezed out of their present jobs due to their comparative lack of seniority.

Blocked out of jobs entirely, here and in many other school systems, are most brand new teachers, plus young faculty members who have not yet achieved tenure. Exceptions are those who have instructional specialties that are currently in demand.

In addition to scheduling its next meeting for March 25, the School Board decided to cancel its meeting scheduled for the first week of April.

Instead, the board will meet on April 15, when it will reorganize following the April 12 board election. By April 15, it (Continued on Page 11)

Moran active for Matoesian

George Moran, retired appellate judge, made an appeal for Democratic primary election support for Andy Matoesian at a campaign rally Monday evening at Charlie's Restaurant.

The fund-raising gathering honoring Matoesian attracted a turnout of more than 100. Gilbert Rosch served as chairman of the event.

Principal speakers were the candidate and Judge Moran, who cited the Granite City's extensive judicial experience of 14 years despite a relatively young age, 42.

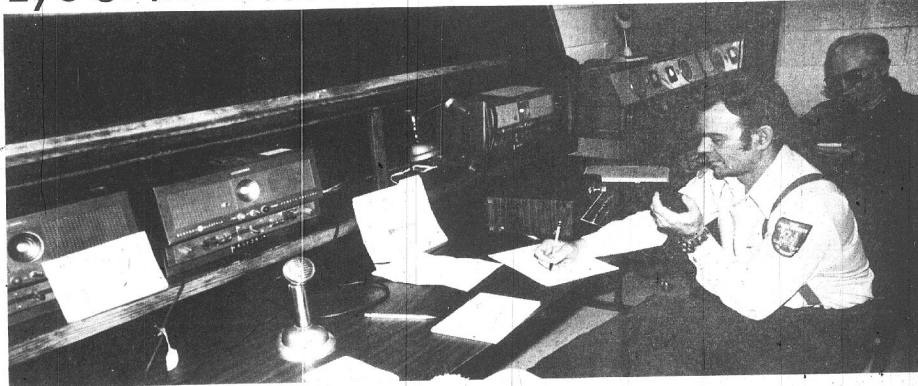

Now an associate judge and formerly a circuit judge, Matoesian is seeking nomination March 18 for a circuit judge position in the Third Circuit. The post that formerly held by William Beatty, who is now a U. S. district judge.

Diogenes' quest could end here

Diogenes, the Greek philosopher, carried a lantern through the streets of Athens looking for an honest man. One showed up in the School District Nine this winter, judging by a letter noted at Tuesday night's Granite City School Board meeting.

"The enclosed $5 is 'conscience money' for a few pencils and pens taken for personal use years ago. The money will more than pay for the few items, but I have learned in later years that using and keeping things that are not ours is wrong and that reimbursement is required when it is possible to do so."

Hope to strengthen links between CETA and education

Harold E. Briggs, regional superintendent of schools, has received notice from the State Board of Education that the Vocational Education CETA Youth Linkage Demonstration Project has been approved by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare for $186,265.

The proposal submitted by Madison County involving the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act was one of six proposals accepted nationwide, Supt. Briggs said Tuesday.

This proposal was submitted jointly by the regional superintendent of schools, Madison County, and the Office of Manpower Development, which is the CETA prime sponsor for Madison County.

Several other agencies with past involvement in CETA-Education linkages will also participate in the project.

Coordinated Youth Services, a service provider with Alternative Education programs, the Consortium of Vocational Educators and Employers, a work-education council, and the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan and Regional Planning commission, an advisory organization serving units of government, will also share responsibility for implementation of portions of the project under a consortium arrangement.

The Madison County regional superintendent of schools will serve as the fiscal agent for the project.

In order to facilitate the development of linkages, other agencies, and organizations will be involved in the project as operations begin.

The area-wide Private Industry Council, Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, and the Area Career Guidance Center will be asked to play active roles.

Four firms may bid on next city trash contract

An unidentified party who has been trying to "help" the Granite City Council prepare specifications for its garbage collection contract has struck again, this time in an unsigned letter to the Press-Record.

At the council's Feb. 19 meeting, Alderman Paul Ray Bowler, chairman of the council finance committee, said he had obtained a copy of a "blank contract" which had "mysteriously" appeared at the city's sewage treatment plant. He contended that the wording of the contract, if adopted by the council, might favor one trash hauling firm and nearly exclude all others.

The city then drafted its own specifications and at least four firms are to be opened March 25 and the new contract is to begin July 1.

Bowler's statements about the unsigned set of proposed specifications were printed in the Feb. 21 Press-Record. Next, a rebuttal to that article and to Bowler's statements was sent to this newspaper, but there were no indications who the author was.

The writer of the rebuttal contends, "It is apparent that Mr. Bowler speaks without complete knowledge of the fact" and cites several areas where Bowler's statements allegedly are not in accord with a blank document which appeared at the sewage treatment plant. The unidentified writer points out, the blank document was "not a contract" but was suggested "terms and conditions" and "specifications" the city could use in seeking bids for the new trash collection contract.

He enclosed a copy of the document with the letter and noted, "No signature blocks appear for acceptance as a bona fide contract."

The writer stated that the format for the document "was taken from a major metropolitan sewer system listing and covering the city's interests."

Bowler had objected to wording in the document which would require the (Continued on Page 11)

Reagan delegate candidate receptions March 11 and 12

Citizens for Ronald Reagan for President will hold a reception for Republican delegates supporting former Governor Reagan on Tuesday, March 11, from 8 to 10 p.m. at the Tepee, corner of W. Main and S. Combs streets, Collinsville.

Light refreshments will be served and a special guest speaker will appear. The event is free and open to the public.

Reagan supporters believe it is necessary to provide the public with information in regard to how the delegates and alternates will vote at the Republican convention in July. Vince Saputo, publicity chairman for the event, commented,

"The force in the Republican primary March 18 caused by having to slate all delegates as 'uncommitted' has made us work harder so people will be sure to elect delegates who are committed to Ronald Reagan."

"We urge all interested citizens to attend his reception and meet the people courageous enough to commit themselves in this year of 'mystery' for Republicans."

Former U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz will be the featured speaker on Wednesday, March 12, at an hours de'oeuvres reception to be held in Michael's Restaurant, Highland, from 2 to 4 p.m. Butz, widely known as an advocate for the American farmer, will be appearing on behalf of the 23rd District Reagan candidates.

Bob Hohn of Collinsville.

Arthur Becker, 62, former Madison plant manager, dies

Chemistry honors for Matt Thomas of MHS

Matt Thomas, a student at Madison High School, placed first in competition at Belleville Area College last week. The competition wasn't among athletes, but between "MATHletes," chemistry and biology buffs, and other "eggheads" subjects such as physics, English and graphics.

There was even a pocket calculator meet, officials noted.

Thomas placed first in Class A chemistry individual scoring.

The competition was sponsored by the Junior Engineering Technical Society (JETS), a national organization of high school chapters. The group is dedicated to encouraging students to excel in their studies and to emphasize college preparatory courses in mathematics, science and communicative skills.

Dr. Warren Nieburg, dean of General Studies and Community Services at BAC, remarked, "Our college is honored to be host for this event. I call this kind of competition 'Olympics of the Mind.'"

"Certainly, students who excel in physics, mathematics, biology and other difficult subjects deserve to be recognized for their abilities, just as young athletes are."

Nieburg was responsible for arranging the facilities and for faculty members of the college to act as judges and scorers. He foresees more and more of this kind of competition.

"Most of the state's community colleges are encouraging meets of this sort on their campuses. There is a possibility that, in the near future, students may be named all-state math team members, or all-American physics scholars," Nieburg said.

"Wouldn't that be a great day for a lot of bright students?"

Montalvo fund party March 12

The first phase of the Phil Montalvo for Congress publicity campaign began this week as billboards appeared in locations throughout Madison and St. Clair counties.

A party for "early believers" is planned for Wednesday, March 12, at Fischer's in Belleville, with music, dancing and a buffet starting at 7 p.m.

"No boring political speeches, and no rubber chicken," he promises. Tickets are $35 per couple or $20 each.

Montalvo asserted this week. "During 1979, Congressman Melvin Price paid a salary of $2,029 per month to Gene Jette, his secretary, even though Jette is incapacitated and has been in a nursing home since March of last year."

"Mr. Price also spent $8,000 of our tax money for a non-existent office and telephone service during that same period of time."

"This is just a sampling of your current congressman's waste of taxpayer money, and illustrates Price's lack of concern for his constituents."

"Our area has lost over 10,000 plant jobs alone since 1970. My challenge for the '80s is to get our district on the move again."

"We must not only encourage the growth of new industries, but concentrate on insuring a climate in which business and industry wants to remain."

Egyptian pyramids topic of Dr. Purdes

Dr. Alice Purdes presented the program "The Egypt Story" to the Travelers' Club at its February meeting.

Some 200 of the club members were shown in connection with a description of 4 trips to Egypt made by the speaker between 1962 and 1977.

The golden age of Egypt's power was in the 14th Century B.C. Between 2700 and 2200, the great pyramids were built. Following that period, Egypt enjoyed expanding political strength and broader economic horizon.

Then came their acquisition of an empire, mostly in Asia. Thebes had a burial ground with 62 tombs, called the Valley of Kings or Tombs of Kings. This rocky wasteland on the western side of the Nile was the location for the filming of the movie "The Ten Commandments."

Inside the pyramids, the Pharaohs built secret graves to prevent robbery although most of them have been robbed. Wall paintings have depictions of everyday life. To reach the tomb of Set I, probably the finest in the Valley of Tombs, a visitor must descend 102 steps.

In the Valley of the Queens is tomb of a female Pharaoh, Hatshepsut who devoted herself to administration and encouragement of commerce.

The British Egyptologist Howard Carter discovered the tomb of Tutankhamen in 1922, after 15 years of excavation. It contained beds, thrones, chariots, weapons and objects of luxury and comfort for his voyage through eternity. The tomb had been ransacked shortly after his burial, but the mummy encased in 3 coffins was not found at that time.

Carter found that too lavish use of oils and unguents had practically destroyed the remains. Pathologists were unable to establish the cause of his death in 1325 B.C. at the age of 18, just nine years after he ascended the throne. Ten years were required for the removal of some 2000 treasures from the tomb of King Tut, one of the richest kings of ancient Egypt.

The most important Egyptological collection in the world is in Cairo, in the Museum of Egyptian Antiquities, better known as the Museum of King Tut. It is full of mummies and statues of gods.

Before the great pyramids were built, the Step Pyramid was designed by Imhotep, the first Egyptian to reject bricks and built with stone. The most celebrated pyramids are at Giza. The one which immortalizes Khufu covers 13 acres. The entrance is 18 meters above the ground and inside are descending and ascending passage ways. Here at Giza is also the Sphinx.

Today's visitor to Egypt relives the glory of the ancient kingdom as he rides Egypt's "Ship of the Desert," the camel, one of man's most helpful animals, although the ugliest and meanest, having few friends even among other camels.

He stores food in the hump, retains liquids, and so he can go without water for days or months. He supplies man with meat, fat, butter, cheese, wool and leather.

Cairo is a mixture of old and new, the largest city in Africa and an industrial center. The western part of the city has modern buildings, many built in the 1960's in American and European style.

The Cairo Tower with a moving floor at the top houses a cafeteria, dance hall, offices for the post office, telephone and telegraph information and touring services. The eastern quarter offers a streets and open-front shops. Many poor people wear a traditional Arab garment, the long flowing robe. One can see more than 250 mosques and there are many sailboats in the harbor.

More than half of the Egyptians are poor people, living in mud brick houses in crowded villages along the Nile. They farm small pieces of land, 90 percent of which is rented from landlords. Cotton is Egypt's most important crop, 70 percent of which is exported.

Hundred-twenty-nine miles northwest of Cairo is Alexandria on the Mediterranean, through whose port pass 80 percent of the nations imports and exports. Its beaches attract large numbers of people in the summer. Bedouins can be seen in the desert moving camels, goats and sheep in search of fresh pastureland.

Transportation is afforded by 14,000 miles of roads and 3,000 miles of railroad tracks. United Arab Airlines provide flights between their cities and foreign countries. The speaker was introduced by Miss Betty Townsend, a former pupil of Dr. Purdes.

One-tenth of BAC students are veterans

Veteran's enrollment at Belleville Area College continues to increase.

BAC was the only college in Illinois to show an increase in veterans enrolled during the spring and fall of 1979. Enrollment of veterans this spring is three percent over the fall, and five percent over last spring.

Asked what he attributes the increasing enrollment to, Veterans Services Director Michael Tharp said, "I believe that many veterans have only recently become aware of what their educational benefits are."

"BAC has been making a real push to get the word out on the quite generous benefits that are available, especially when the GI Bill is used with the Illinois Veterans Scholarship."

Tharp indicated that some veterans may have decided to enroll for programs at the college as a result of inflation.

"Number one, they need to acquire skills to get better jobs," he said. "And number two, the additional income from the GI bill helps to offset the effect of inflation."

Tharp said the number of veterans enrolling for classes under the Illinois Veterans Scholarship is also rising.

When the total number of veterans enrolled under one or both programs is considered, veterans' enrollment makes up more than 10 percent of the college student body.

Shoe care is vital for maximum wear

By CATHERINE R. MAUCK
Madison County
Extension Adviser,
Home Economics

Rising leather prices make it essential that you get maximum wear from new shoes and boots. And to get maximum wear you need to give them proper care.

The wholesale price of shoes rose 25 percent during 1979, according to industry sources.

The price of leather was estimated to be between 32 and 35 percent higher than in 1978.

About 56 percent of shoe material is leather. The rest is vinyl and plastic, the costs of which also rose as oil prices increased.

Winter rains and snows take their toll on shoes and boots. The following steps will help care for your footwear—and protect your investment.

Clean, brush and polish leather shoes and boots frequently. The wax and oil in shoe polish lubricates and protects leather.

Suede footwear should be cleaned with a bristle or rubber brush. Wipe patent leather with a damp cloth.

When footwear gets wet, remove moisture and dirt from the outer surface. Stuff with newspaper or shoe or boot trees and let stand for a day in a cool place.

Remove any remaining dirt, and then polish the footwear and let stand for another day. Never dry near a hot radiator or open flame. And don't polish over dirt. Have footwear repaired promptly as wear begins to occur.

Out-of-season footwear should be stored in boxes, plastic bags or containers that will keep them dirt-free and off the floor.

Finally, if feet perspire heavily, try using a foot powder and, if possible, wear socks and hosiery made from absorbent fibers in the foot area.

Salvation Army Elizabethan feast to install at board meeting

The annual Advisory Board meeting of The Salvation Army will be held on Wednesday, March 12, at 12 noon at the Army facility at 3007 East 23rd St., it was announced by Captain Trapp.

Lunch will be served prior to the program, which will include a presentation of Tree of Lights Awards, installation of new Advisory Board officers, and a report of the work done by The Salvation Army in this community in 1979.

Guest speaker for this event will be C. Wesley Laws, who is currently in charge of public relations for The Salvation Army for the St. Louis-metro area.

Reservations are being taken until March 10 by Daria Stagg or Capt. Elmer Trapp at 451-7957. Cost of the luncheon is $5 and the public is cordially invited to attend, Capt. Trapp added.

Wassail, "tenderloyn of beefe" and selected wines from his lordship's vineyards will be the culinary fare at the third annual Elizabethan Madrigal Feast, presented by the BAC Chamber Choir on Friday and Saturday, March 14-15.

The Feast, which is held to welcome the coming of spring, will again be celebrated at the restaurant of the Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows, 9500 Route 460 (Highway 15), Belleville.

Guests will gather for the Royale Wassail reception at 7 p.m. and will be ushered to their tables by wenches and squires.

Announced by a brass fanfare, the royale banquet will also include beefe and barley potage, grene salade with sautes, oven browned almonds, English round breade with swete butter, and dumbled apples. (The spellings are those of old England.)

The regal pageantry and ceremonial pomp of merrie olde England will be evidenced in the costumes and authentic music of the 16th Century court's singers and minstrels, who will perform under the direction of the Elizabethan composer Thomas Morley, played by BAC music professor A. Dennis Sparger.

The evening's festivities will be hosted by Lord Philip and Lady Barbara of Nottingham, portrayed by Col. (Ret.) and Mrs. Dale Flinders of Lebanon who, amidst trumpet fanfare, will be escorted into the candlelit banquet hall.

Other members of the Royale Court are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Eckert, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bloomer, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Sandefur, David Favreau and Mrs. Sheila Cosmano, Thomas Sturgess and Mrs. Elsie Long, Major William Fethke and Jamie Bloomer, Dr. Kent Kastens, and Mrs. Osceola Mueller, Mrs. Debra Harres and Dee Ann Meliere.

The steward will be played by BAC student Scott Bramstedt. Costumes and decorations are by BAC graphic artist Nancy Webb. The celebration will also include harpsichord music, a recorder consort, story-telling time with mime, and renaissance dancing.

Tickets for the feast are $10.50 per person and must be ordered this week. Reservations may be placed by contacting BAC Madrigal Feast, 36 Harmon drive, Lebanon 62254. Guests are to specify first and second date preferences.

Exercise, dancing classes for spring

Whether you are a member of yesterday's or today's generation, there are ways to get you back into the swing of things, a university spokesman says.

Buscaglia tickets sold out; Harry Chapin to sing

Tickets to the Leo Buscaglia lecture at Belleville Area College have been sold out. He will appear at McKendree College, Lebanon, on Friday, March 21, at 1 p.m., however, and some tickets are still available for that appearance.

Ray Moddrell, BAC student activities director, said the early sellout is a first for the college's Fine Arts Festival events. "We've had full houses and good success for all of our major performers in previous years," Moddrell said, "but never anything like this."

Moddrell sees the possibility of the same kind of response to the Harry Chapin concert scheduled for March 18 at 8 p.m. at the Belle-Clair Fairgrounds. He noted there are only 2,500 tickets available and that Chapin regularly draws crowds of seven or eight thousand when he is in this area.

"We don't anticipate having any tickets left the night of the performance," Moddrell said. "We recommend that those who want to attend the Chapin concert obtain advance tickets as soon as possible at the student activities office."

Stack heads energy group

A new National Steel energy management task force, which will concern itself with the need to improve energy performance throughout the corporation, has been appointed by Howard M. Love, president and chief operating officer. Heading the group as chairman will be GC Steel President James V. Stack.

"Energy has become our most critical cost item, and every effort of the corporation must be directed toward improving our energy performance," Love said in organizing the task force.

"We have made some significant strides, but it is critical that we move at a quicker pace this year and next."

He added that an overall corporate objective is to reduce the company's energy costs in 1980 by $50 million and in 1981 by $100 million, as compared with 1979.

Love called on all operating units and corporate staff groups to give the task force "full support" in its activities, which are to go into effect immediately.

There are two other members of the task force from GC Steel. They are Joe Dadak, manager, Energy Management and Utilities, and chief industrial engineer Mike Carroll.

The other task force members are:

National Steel: R. M. Deane, vice president-engineering; J. R. Dietz, vice president-research and development; and George Pulianias, vice president-administration, and secretary of the new group Weirton Steel Division: C. L. Valdesieri, general manager-service and maintenance.

Henkhaus endorses Knoblauch

Madison County Treasurer Mick Henkhaus announced Tuesday that he is endorsing David Knoblauch of Wood River for county recorder of deeds in the March 18 primary. Knoblauch already has received the endorsement of Madison County Sheriff Emil Toffant.

Henkhaus, elected through the independent wing of the Democratic party two years ago, said he feels Knoblauch could carry out the recorder's job to the benefit of taxpayers and free of political influence. Knoblauch, a bailiff for the Third Judicial Circuit Court, first filed to run against Madison County Circuit Clerk Willard V. "Butch" Portell but was convinced by a group of citizens to instead oppose incumbent Recorder Ronald Lucas of Maryville.

"I was under the initial impression that (former State Representative) Joe Luceo might run for recorder of deeds. That is one reason I did not plan to run for that office."

"When I found out he was not planning to file a petition, I got together with the people who were backing me for that office and decided to go for it.

"For one thing, I would put in the hours needed. I would do what was necessary to improve the office in any way possible," Knoblauch said.

"For example, neither Mr. Lucas, nor any employee of his office, attended a recent county officials' meeting on better utilization of the county's existing data processing system. I feel that, as the officeholder, he should have been there to investigate what could be done to improve the operations."

"As far as the endorsements, I consider both an honor. Toffant is known for good government, as is Henkhaus. Both the endorsements represent two officeholders the people believe in, who were not endorsed by the political machine and who won their offices through the people in the county."

Law commission toll free number

The Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission's Springfield office has a new toll free number: 800-252-8048. The service was installed to aid persons seeking information about filing a complaint against an Illinois attorney.

Carl H. Rolewick, administrator of the commission, said, "The new toll free service will enable Illinois residents to call our Springfield office at no expense and obtain complaint forms and information about filing complaints."

The commission was established in 1973 by the Illinois Supreme Court to receive and investigate complaints concerning the conduct of lawyers licensed to practice law in Illinois. There is no charge for the handling of a complaint. All expenses of the disciplinary system are paid from annual registration fees paid by Illinois attorneys. No tax money is used.

Letter writing is praised for the enjoyment—and for the response it can bring

High honors were accorded Christopher King, a Grigsby Junior High student, in "letter writing" contest award ceremonies Monday afternoon in East St. Louis. As part of its nationwide National Letter Writing Week observance Feb. 25-March 1, the United States Postal Service in cooperation with the National Council of Teachers of English has been offering a booklet on letter writing for school youngsters.

"All About Letters" is a 64-page publication designed for students. Copies of the booklet are available by writing to the National Council of Teachers of English, Department A, 1111 Kenyon Road, Urbana, Ill. 61801 and enclosing a check or money order for $1.50 for a single copy, or 75 cents per copy when ordered in classroom sets of 20 or more copies.

Jack LaZard Jr., Sectional Center manager at East St. Louis, which is the headquarters for post offices in the zip prefix areas 620, 622 and 624, extended an invitation to all schools in this area to enter a contest for the best letters on the theme, "Why Write a Letter?"

Each teacher of all participating schools was to select the best letter of the class and grade and mail it to the local postmaster, who in turn sent it to the Management, Sectional Center for judging. Area postmasters and the Sectional Center staff judged the best letters. Several thousand letters were received from over 100 area schools.

Winning letters from each grade will receive a first place ribbon. Zip code area winners for each grade receive a certificate.

The final grade winners received plaques presented at the East St. Louis Post Office Monday. The final winners in the sectional region:

1st Grade — Jennifer Bathen, St. Bruns School, Pinckneyville 62272.
2nd — Katie Hull, Dow School, Dow 62022.
3rd — Brian Garrard, Palestine Grade School, Palestine 62451.

4th — Courtney Walker, Dunbar School, East St. Louis 62207.
5th — Ronnie Rehkemper, Alhambra Grade School, Alhambra 62001.

6th — Martha Feardy, Neoga Elementary School, Neoga 62411.
7th — Ann Heiden, Bethlehem, Lutheran, Alton 62411.

8th — Christopher S. King, Grigsby Junior High School, Granite City 62040.
9th — Patricia Lee, Marissa Junior-Senior High School, Marissa 62257.

10th — Amy Arnold, Washington School, Robinson 62450.
11th — Missy Bryant, Carlyle High School, Carlyle 62331.

12 Grade — Kelle Courtland, Carlyle High School, Carlyle 62331.

Christopher King wrote to Granite City Postmaster Jack Wilkins:

"Why write a letter? I usually find myself writing letters because I'm obliged to, such as pen pals, aunts, cousins, and the usual assortment of relatives.

"These I make brief and concise, all unessentials done away with. I won't joke with you — letters I have to write tend to be very boring. "After type of letter I occasionally write is the business letter. I write these to bring to the attention of the company the quality, if it good or bad, of their product."

"The complimentary ones can be a joy to write. A company once sent me a case of their products in response to one letter.

"By the same token derogatory letters can be a real hassle, but the company does deserve to know, and if the public doesn't inform them, who will?"

"Then there are times when I want to write a letter. Friends, closer relatives, and sweethearts, these letters are dedicated to you. The pen flies across an open paper, open-minded and consenting, and before long I'm needing a fresh sheet of paper."

"These letters are full of love, ideas and heartfelt greetings which tend to leave sender and receiver alike with a good feeling and a warm glowing in their souls. "But it is when the letter is returned with a very special response that it really starts to live."

"In closing, I would like to say this: Write a letter and do it for the obligation, for the need, for the fun, for the love, but, especially, for the response."

More Pontoon Express buses

Effective March 24, the Bi-State Development Agency will implement service changes on two local bus routes.

Passengers who have questions about the service changes or would like schedules showing the changed routes and times, may call Bi-State at 314-773-1120, or write the Bi-State Development Agency, 3869 Park Ave., St. Louis 63110.

The changes are as follows:
530X — Pontoon Express (Illinois Route). One additional morning and one additional evening trip will be added to this line because of increased ridership.

532 — East Granite (Illinois Route). On the present schedule there is a trip leaving 19th and Edison at 7:30 a.m. and another at 7:36 a.m. These trips in the past have been operated because of high school ridership.

On the new schedule, the trip leaving 19th and Edison at 7:30 a.m. will be discontinued as the present volume of ridership does not justify the extra service, and checks indicate that the 7:36 a.m. trip will be able to accommodate all of the present passengers.

WOMAN STRUCK, HURT

She had several large knots on her head and obtained treatment at St. Elizabeth Medical Center. He was arrested later at his home and was released on $102 cash bond.

'Neighbor' campaign by Reagan

A statewide "neighbor to neighbor" program aimed at identifying supporters of presidential candidate Ronald Reagan had gotten them to the polls on March 18 has been launched by the Reagan for President Committee of Illinois.

Committee Chairman State Rep. Donald L. Totten, R-Hoffman Estates, said the committee plans to recruit several thousand "neighborhood Reagan chairmen" prior to the Illinois Republican primary election March 18.

He said several hundred have been recruited, in addition to hundreds of other Reagan volunteers in Illinois, and that the recruitment effort has confirmed that most grassroots Republican workers prefer the former California governor as their choice for president over the other Republican candidates.

Totten said the neighborhood chairmen include many Republican precinct captains and precinct committeemen as well as non-party officials in areas in which the precinct captain or committeeman is not yet supporting Reagan.

But his skillful handling of the candidates' introductions and the question-and-answer period enlivened an otherwise polite exchange of political platitudes.

Before calling each candidate to vote for "old family party" that we may have supported because our parents and grandparents did.

The first speaker, David Nussen, is mayor of Quincy. He is running for Congress in the 20th District.

Next came Ron Davinroy of O'Fallon, a Republican candidate for Congress in the 20th District. He mentioned that he'd been a Boy Scout and an Air Force pilot who'd served in Vietnam.

He wants to "bring back the free enterprise system." He wants a return to basic U.S. values.

He was fired of monthly Washington scandals. A third Republican candidate came up to speak at a podium dominated by a huge Phil Crane poster on the wall in back of it.

Phil Montalvo has been a lawyer for ten years and involved in Republican party for many years. He believes that Rep. Mel Price of the 22nd Congressional District, a Democrat, does not represent the people or echo the basic conservative sentiments of this area.

Montalvo was the first to ask his audience to take a good look at the individuals and issues in the coming election. After he spoke, Hardy acknowledged that a practicing newsmen should not comment, but then he did.

He said this country has gone through eight years of issue-oriented campaigning and that electors should not decide on one issue alone to support a candidate. Asking the audience to broaden their understanding of their elected representatives, he concluded, "Don't cast your vote on one issue."

Switching to the campaign for state representative in the 55th District, Republican incumbent Dwight Friedrich told the audience of his German grandfather and desire to preserve his heritage. He calls himself a citizen-legislator and says others have called him a reactionary.

The first Democratic speaker of the evening was Sam Nail of Salem, a regional superintendent of schools with a background as a teacher and school administrator. He is running for 55th District representative.

Frank Watson, Greenville Republican and 55th District incumbent, told the audience that he believes that communication with the people represented is vital.

The next candidate to speak was Charles Chapman, running as a Democrat for judge of the Third Circuit Court. He presently holds that job as an appointee. He added that he has a good background as a trial lawyer.

Bob Kauche, Highland attorney, spoke for an old friend, Paul "Press" Walter, a Democratic candidate for Appellate Court judge who was unable to attend.

He praised Walter as a family man, a religious man and a qualified man who had practiced law for 30 years.

He added that the average citizen doesn't realize the effect on their daily lives of decisions made by the Appellate Court when lower court decisions are appealed.

Ron Nieman of Salem, another Democratic candidate for the Appellate Court judgeship, explained next that there are 37 counties in the court district. A former Marion County state's attorney, he believes the district needs a judge to better represent this area.

He added that the Appellate Court is the last place that 90 to 95 percent of appealed cases are heard.

Candidates would get tough on crime, federal spending

Highland News Leader The Eagle Forum's "Meet Your Candidates Night" at the Weinheimer Center Friday brought out a larger crowd than usual for such efforts.

The presence of Bob Hardy, veteran radio newsmen, as moderator may or may not have brought in more Highland residents who are not political activists.

But his skillful handling of the candidates' introductions and the question-and-answer period enlivened an otherwise polite exchange of political platitudes.

Before calling each candidate to vote for "old family party" that we may have supported because our parents and grandparents did.

The first speaker, David Nussen, is mayor of Quincy. He is running for Congress in the 20th District.

He added that the Appellate Court is the last place that 90 to 95 percent of appealed cases are heard.

Nieman is against legalized marijuana and narrow interpretation of the rules that throws out all testimony of a law officer who has made a mistake "in good faith" in dealing with an accused lawbreaker.

Next came the candidates for state's attorney.

William R. Haine, an Alton Democrat, said that he'd been in politics since he was 15 years old. He's been in the public defender office for three years and also has juvenile court experience.

A Democratic precinct committeeman and member of the Madison County Board, he believes the state's attorney should have political experience.

Don Weber, who identified himself as a Reagan Republican, also is a candidate for state's attorney. He came back at Haine with one of the evening's few disputes.

He disagreed with Haine, stating that politics does not belong in the state's attorney's office. He called Nick Byron, incumbent state's attorney, an arm chair and absentee state's attorney.

Weber has been a prosecutor for five years in the juvenile division and the felony division.

During a question period, U.S. Congressmen returned and Davinroy said again that he is fighting for the free enterprise system.

Montalvo said he wants to participate in the mainstream of the American way of life. He feels qualified for Congress by the desire to go to Congress and change the way the country is run.

He wants to get this government off my back," he said.

Montalvo also said he'd like to see the moral fiber of the nation restored and a stop put to such things as legalized abortions. Sam Drenovac, a perennial Democratic candidate for Congress who'd arrived late, told the audience that he was running against Mel Price. He added that he would not vote to eliminate the wealth of this nation. He called himself a "hawk" who considers it a disgrace that this country has fallen behind on defense measures.

Haine and Weber, state's attorney candidates, next returned for questions.

Haine agreed with a comment from the floor that the juvenile court has been too lenient with some juvenile delinquents; however, he says it is not a judge's fault that the juvenile code is not punitive enough.

He believes juveniles who commit violent crimes should be certified for trial as adults. He also believes the state's attorney should vigorously pursue child abuse cases.

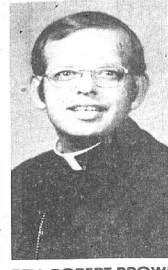

Weber claimed that judges about have been too "soft" with juveniles.

He supports new state legislation, the juvenile habitual offender act, which would make it tougher on young lawbreakers.

Moderator Hardy asked the two candidates what each would do for the violent juvenile crime. Weber says victims should not have to come to court and hang around for hours not knowing when and if their case comes before the judge.

He thinks a more efficient method of keeping in touch with them is possible. He added that he would take on the "victim system" and make juvenile laws tougher.

Haine said the state's attorney's office needs across-the-board concern for all crime victims. He would like to see restitution to victims whenever possible.

REV. ROBERT BROWN

Chaplain will speak at Concordia

Menard Chaplain Robert Brown returned to Concordia Lutheran Church Sunday to preach his second mission festival sermon here. His appearance at Concordia three years ago prompted Concordia's Board for Synodical Affairs, chaired by Louis Kofking, to request his return.

For the cause of world missions, Concordia observes two annual mission festivals with special offerings. The spring offering is gathered during Lent through quarter cent folders.

The Rev. Brown is a prison chaplain called by the Southern Illinois District of the Lutheran Church to serve the Chester Mental Health Center as well as the Menard Psychiatric Center. There are 940 in the two centers.

Chaplain Brown also serves the Lutheran inmates of the Menard State Prison. Before going to Menard, Chaplain Brown was a parish pastor at Key West, Fla.

To free Chaplain Brown for his Granite City appearances, Concordia's pastor, the Rev. Arvin Twietmeyer, will conduct Chaplain Brown's 8 a.m. service at the Mental Health Center.

Chaplain Brown's topic at Concordia will be "Christian Fruit Bearing." Worship at Concordia is at 10:15 a.m. The chaplain will welcome open discussion of his work in the 9 a.m. Bible class.

Individual retirement arrangements

Eligible workers have until Tuesday, April 15, to make their 1979 contributions to their individual Retirement Savings Arrangements (IRAs). However, if they file their 1979 income tax returns after April 15 on an extension, they have until the date that they file their returns to make their contributions.

Since penalties are assessed for excessive contributions, this period for making contributions allows taxpayers to closely calculate the amount of the contribution, make the contribution, and still be able to deduct it from their 1979 taxable income, the Internal Revenue Service explains.

IRAs are taxpayer-initiated retirement plans set up by workers not covered by qualified pension or retirement plans where they are employed. IRAs also are available to non-working spouses of eligible workers.

Many banks, insurance companies, credit unions and other financial institutions can provide additional information on setting up and maintaining IRAs.

In addition, there is a free booklet, IRS Publication 590, "Tax Information on Individual Retirement Arrangements," which can be ordered by mail using the order form in the tax package.

MEET Andy Matoesian Democratic Candidate For Circuit Judge

Dear Voter

For 14 years I have served as an Associate Trial Judge, hearing a variety of cases, including criminal, damage, and divorce. I feel I have done a good job as an Associate Judge and believe I would be an effective Circuit Judge. Therefore, I am a candidate for Circuit Judge, the next step above Associate Judge in the judicial system.

In the case of People vs. David Gray, the defendant was found guilty of rape, armed robbery and attempted murder and sentenced to 60 years. Gray filed an appeal with the Appellate Court, contesting my imposition of the maximum 60 year sentence. Under Illinois law, the maximum sentence for rape is 30 years; however, if the Judge is convinced that the crime is of a brutal nature, a maximum of 60 years may be imposed. The Appellate Court affirmed the 60 year sentence, including all my rulings.

Among my supporters are George J. Moran, recently retired Judge of the Appellate Court, Fred P. Schuman, former Chief Judge of the Circuit Court, and many lawyers and friends. If you wish to check on my qualifications, please call any lawyer or any judge in your area. You can also call Emil Toffant, Sheriff of Madison County, who strongly endorses me.

I am opposed by an individual whose practice has been confined to the trial of damage suits, who has no prior judicial experience and whose practice has been confined to one area of the law.

I hope you cast your ballot for me in the Primary Election to be held on March 18, 1980.

Andy Matoesian

P.S. There are eight Circuit Judges in this Circuit, which consists of Madison and Bond Counties. There is no Circuit Judge now living in Granite City, Madison or Venice, yet these cities represent the bulk of the votes for the Democratic Party. If I am not elected, the Tri City area will be without a Circuit Judge. Does this situation make good sense politically, geographically or from the standpoint of good judicial management?

Record investment earnings for state

As a result of investment policies by the state treasurer, Illinois has earned over $140 million in investment income, an increase of $60 million over the prior year. State Comptroller Roland W. Burris reported this week.

Burris said Illinois' policy of allowing the state treasurer flexibility in determining the state's investment portfolio has permitted the treasurer to take advantage of investment opportunities that provide the maximum benefit to citizens.

A monthly fiscal report, released by the comptroller, takes a special look at the state investment program, administered by the office of the state treasurer.

The report also looks in detail at the current fiscal health of the state, including an assessment of Illinois' economic picture and the continued absence of "the long anticipated recession."

Here are some of the findings of the special analysis of the state's investment program.

—Approximately 950 banks are receiving over $1.1 billion in deposits through the treasurer's long-term investment program.

—Investments of $376 million were made in 1979 in Illinois banks, other than major Chicago banks, through the treasurer's Basic Deposit program.

A special program which awarded money to Illinois banks on the basis of interest bid, amount requested and the amount of loans made by the bank which are considered a service to the community. This provided $608 million in deposits in 1979, over $200 million more than ever before.

The state treasurer's Specific Opportunity program ties state deposits to those banks which provide loans for activities considered particularly important by the treasurer, e.g. $53 million for disaster loans following the snowstorm of 1979, $32 million in disaster relief for the floods in 1977, and $20 million for farm relief following the corn blight in 1972.

—Deposits of $90 million at a 3 percent interest were offered throughout the year to newly chartered Illinois banks.

—In fiscal 1979, investment income provided $98 million of the total $7,055,000,000 in general fund revenues.

REVENUES CONTINUE TO GROW: UNEMPLOYMENT UP BUT RECESSION STILL DELAYED

Illinois continued to maintain its healthy fiscal posture with revenues for the first seven months of 1979-80 running $140 million higher than expenditures.

The end of January available balance in the general funds was $530 million, although the amount has been somewhat inflated by personal property tax replacement receipts.

Meanwhile, the Illinois economic picture continues to be as perplexing as the national economy, Burris said. Inflation is continuing at a high rate while the Illinois unemployment rate rose to 7.1 percent in January.

The anticipated recession has still not arrived, even though the housing and automobile sectors are showing sales decreases, he added.

Other fiscal highlights from the report:

—$73 million remain available for transfer to general funds by action of the governor from the five special state funds. An additional $40 million could be suspended from automatically transferring from the general funds to five debt service funds.

—Income tax revenues are up 24 percent or $285 million over comparable receipts in fiscal 1979. Sales tax receipts and investment income are also up substantially from a year ago.

—The fiscal "state of the state" is enhanced further by the fact that the available balance in all funds at the end of January 1980 was $1,734,000,000. That is $424 million or 32.4 percent greater than at the end of January 1979.

—The average daily available balance in the general funds in the first seven months of fiscal 1980 was $514 million, or $285 million higher than in the first seven months of fiscal 1979.

—Total expenditures from general funds are running $515 million higher than a year ago.

—Motor fuel tax receipts continue to lag behind a year ago, proving that Illinois motorists are conserving gasoline. Lottery receipts are down by $6 million or 20.7 percent over the same period a year ago.

PRESS-RECORD FEATURE BY BILL WINTER

Granite Cityan active as 'Nashville Sound' song writer and performer

What phase of the work is the most important in the music world—composing, performing, producing?

Larry Canada, 31, of Granite City has sampled them all and is meeting with a considerable degree of success in all of these categories.

Among the more recent developments in his fast-moving career has been the signing of a contract this winter with Four-Star Records of Nashville, Tenn., to make recordings.

For the past three years he has been writing songs for the Cedar Wood Publishing Co. of Nashville.

He also is a busy producer of records. And the native Granite Cityan is active as an entertainer, although he did not start playing the guitar until the relatively ripe old age of 20.

He has been interested in music for the past 15 years and has traveled extensively in connection with his music duties during the past four years. While he specializes in the acoustic guitar, he also plays the electric guitar.

One of his early performing stints was with Free and Easy, and another was with Sage, a three-instrument acoustics group.

Canada has appeared as a single in the Safari Room at the Lodge of the Four Seasons in the Missouri Ozarks, at the Crazy Horse Lounge in the Ozarks, at Lucius Boomer's in Laclede's Landing, and at the Xanadu Room of Stouffer's Riverfront Inn.

He finished a ten-week engagement at Brandy's in Maryland Plaza this winter, and then performed at Kennedy's in Laclede's Landing.

Canada mostly books his own engagements but sometimes obtains jobs through a booking company.

He makes a point of leaving enough time free to write songs, and he has shown proficiency in creating ballads, rock numbers and forms of country and western music, primarily country rock.

The local resident has produced such records as "In the Misty Moonlight," "Tequila" and "Limbo Rock."

He has been the producer for such entertainers as Seals and Croft, Rick Nelson, Bonnie Guitar and Glen Campbell and has worked with Gene Autry.

In producing a record, 16 tracks of sound can be used. He explains: "The task is done in stages, with a rhythm track as the base.

"The sounds of the instruments can be changed while experimenting, and strings can be added to sweeten the sound. Almost anything is possible these days with the sophisticated kinds of electronics that can create virtually any sound."

"It's a thrill to watch it grow. The producer more or less sets the mood, deciding what the total sound should be for a particular song."

Of the 100 songs Canada has written, about half of them have been published. Among those in current circulation is "Hanging On."

One of his hard rock music selections is to be included in the next record album of the Nantucket group of Los Angeles on the Epic label.

When composing, how does one go about getting the inspiration for a song? He comments, "I don't try to force a song out. If it comes to you, it comes. When you try to pull a song out, it just doesn't sound right."

"Sometimes I jump out of bed in the middle of the night because I visualize a melody and want to put it down on tape. I sort of 'listen' for the melody rather than creating one."

"Cedar Wood puts up the money for recording 'demos' and I get 50 percent of the publishing rights. As an artist, I get 100 percent of the artist royalties."

"It costs $10 to copyright a song. Producers don't copyright every number, but try to safeguard its originality by sending notarized copies when asking various artists to consider recording the song."

"I really enjoy performing and writing music, but sometimes the business end in Nashville can be quite a headache. Sometimes you're concentrating on your own project, but then you realize when you walk into a place that 15 people with similar ideas and ability have been there before you and 15 more will show up after you leave."

"On a recent 60 Minutes television show they had some bad publicity about the recording industry, showing how people were being bilked while making records that were not going to be produced in a large volume."

"But they were talking about custom recording studios, where anyone can cut a record of a song if he has the money."

"The difference is being signed by a reputable company which has the contacts with disc jockeys and record stores. Four Star is a well-known national recording label. They pay me to record."

"I'm thrilled to death. I'll record four songs at a time until Joe Johnson likes a particular single strongly enough to count on it to sell an entire album. They'll all be my own songs."

Johnson is president of Four Star and has agreed to handle Canada's career personally. Johnson started in the music business in 1962.

One of the Granite Cityan's big breaks occurred when he was performing and Johnson's wife happened to come into the room. She liked the music and asked him to get in touch with her husband.

Canada in writing and cutting demonstration records has worked with Cedar Wood producer John Denny. He now will split his publishing rights between Cedar Wood and Four Star.

The local man, who has a nine-year-old daughter, Brooke, attended Washington Grade School and graduated in 1968 from Granite City High School. He served in the Army from 1967 to 1969.

Canada studied for three and a half years at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, emphasizing psychology and philosophy, and worked at the Bell Telephone Co. He became an air pollution office technician in Granite City and was acting director for six months.

After employment as a laboratory technician at the Alcoa Co. in East St. Louis, he quit in order to play with rock music bands and to develop his songwriting technique.

The bold step has begun to pay dividends, and he spends much of his time in Nashville although continuing to reside in Granite City.

Precisely where his career will lead in the immediate future isn't yet clear to Canada but there are many heartening trends and possibilities.

An example: Rick Nelson, a serious musician after childhood years on television with brother David and parents Ozzie and Harriet, is evaluating some of the selections written by the local resident and may record three or four of the songs this year.

Balanced state budget planned

Governor James R. Thompson proposed his fourth consecutive balanced budget Wednesday, a financial plan for the state's July 1980-June 1981 fiscal year which limits state spending growth just as the previous three budgets did.

He said additional major features of the budget are:

1. Tax relief that can, with measures already in effect, total more than $1 billion over the next two and a half years.
2. An education plan that represents 41 percent of all General Funds appropriations.
3. A transportation portion which provides one of the largest programs in the nation for roads and mass transit in the second year of a four-year plan.
4. A new Human Rights Department to help lead the fight against discrimination, with a 60 percent General Funds increase over 1979-80.
5. The addition of prison bed space to ease overcrowding.
6. A human services portion to expand help for abused children, lower the state's infant mortality rate, help elderly and disabled citizens avoid unnecessary placement in nursing facilities, and improve the quality of care for those served in state institutions.
7. Expanded efforts to encourage proper use, preservation and enhancement of the state's natural resources.
8. Funds to maintain Illinois' economic base, including attracting new jobs and keeping old ones.

The governor's budget for the 1981 fiscal period proposes total appropriations of $14,406,582,000, an increase of 6.3 percent over the previous year, which is below the anticipated inflation rate of at least 10 percent.

In the General Funds portion, total appropriations of $7,629,286,000 are proposed, growth of 7.4 percent.

The budget proposes to begin and end the new fiscal year with a $285 million General Funds available balance.

The governor stressed that unexpected changes in the economy, total Federal failure to extend revenue sharing, could upset "the delicate balance between spending and revenues."

It will be paramount that the General Assembly adhere to the budget recommendations, Gov. Thompson said. "Any proposed spending beyond the budget levels must be accompanied by lower spending in other programs."

On the matter of tax relief, which Thompson proposes in three forms, he said:

"Tax relief has been the right way. Tax relief is proposed after state income has been controlled."

"It is the result of a strong management effort in the Thompson administration which has held increases in state spending to less than the inflation rate in each year since 1977."

Such management, the governor said, will yield tax relief for the second consecutive year. The fiscal year 1981 budget proposes tax relief as follows:

A. Lowering the state portion of the sales tax on food and drugs from three cents to two cents, effective in January 1981, the second step in an effort to exempt this taxing area from the state sales tax.

The added yearly total relief for a family which spends about $75 a week for food would be about $40, he said. Total new relief would be $105 million in calendar year 1981.

B. A one-time "taxpayers' dividend" made possible by previous spending controls, which would provide a dividend of $10 to each taxpayer, plus $10 for each dependent. A family of four would receive $40. Those older than 65 would receive a double dividend, payable when and if the General Assembly approves the plan. Total relief would be $115 million.

C. An expansion in the state's property tax relief program (circuit breaker) for senior citizens and the handicapped. The per-family income ceiling would be increased from $10,000 to $12,500 and the maximum grant would be raised from $650 to $800. The expansion would give tax relief to 50,000 senior households, in addition to the 250,000 households now eligible. Total relief would be $105 million in the 1980-81 fiscal year.

On the revenue side of the budget, the governor's estimates for all state funds total $11,755,000,000, an 8.5 percent increase from the estimate for the preceding year.

Revenues to the General Funds for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1981, are estimated at $8,117,000,000, a 9 percent rise over estimated revenues for fiscal year 1980, which ends June 30.

To provide the dollars for tax relief proposed in the "taxpayers' dividend" portion of his plan, Thompson utilizes a drawdown of the available balance in the General Funds by $115 million during 1979-80.

Trash contract

successful bidder for the city's trash collection contract to "file proof of his ability to properly finance and execute the contract, together with records of successful completion of similar contracts."

It also would require the successful bidder to give the city a list of present customers and allow the city to inspect the equipment and facilities of the company.

"This is to protect the city's interest as to not enter into an agreement with a company that, in the past, has not performed such work in the past," the unidentified writer contended.

Bowler has said the wording would exclude smaller firms bidding successfully and then using the contract with the city to obtain a bank loan to purchase the necessary trucks and equipment.

Bowler also objected to wording which would require the successful bidder to increase fees with cost-of-living trends and increased costs. The rebuttal sent to the Press-Record states, "The contractor should be protected. No one can foresee the future increase of landfills, labor and, most importantly, fuel costs."

The writer also asserted there are adequate safeguards to see that the city is not billed for more loads of trash dumped at a landfill than actually dumped.

On proposed specifications dealing with extra charges for hauling sludge from the sewage treatment plant to the dump, he wrote, "Invoices will not be paid (by the city) until all work billed is delivered and accepted."

Bowler contended the city should weigh and count every load of sludge before it is taken to the landfill.

The unidentified writer alleges that Bowler was mistaken when he indicated there were no provisions for Sunday, holiday or emergency hauling of sludge. He points to a section of the contract which states, "Special emergency service shall be made available on Sunday and holidays and shall be quoted as a separate item."

City Engineer Monroe Brewer has prepared the specifications for bidding and does not consider the unidentified bid proposal when preparing the specifications.

He said the new specifications are basically the same as the former specifications, except that the hauling of sludge from the sewage treatment plant is to be paid for by the city instead of charging separately for every load hauled.

Double murder unsolved; public help sought

The Madison County Sheriff's Department is appealing for assistance from the public in tracing the two men in the lives of two persons whose bodies were dumped along the edge of Slough Road north of West Pontoon Road Feb. 24.

The bodies of James David Alred, 30, Tupelo, Miss., a former St. Louis resident, and Miss Charlotte Diana Jackson, 21, Affton, Mo., were found by children playing in the area in the early afternoon. They were in full view of the roadway. He had suffered severe head wounds and she had been stabbed repeatedly in the abdomen and had a severe head wound. A plastic bag had been wrapped around her head.

Their hands were tied behind them with silver duct tape and their feet were tied backwards to their belts. Deputies have been attempting to reconstruct the final few days in the lives of the two and have determined that they stayed in the Legal Motel on Penridge Drive Thursday night, Feb. 21, and checked out the following morning. Mr. Alred was not seen around the motel by any of the persons interviewed by deputies thus far.

Part of our problem is these two were motorcyclists and moved around quite a bit. Their friends and people we need to talk to have been hard to locate," Major Fred Bright of the sheriff's department said.

Deputies are particularly interested in the couple's activities on Friday, Feb. 22, and Saturday, Feb. 23. It is possible they were murdered Saturday and the bodies left here Saturday night or early Sunday, Feb. 24. A lack of blood where the bodies were found has led deputies to believe the two were murdered elsewhere and then brought to Slough Road.

Mr. Alred is known to have used the nicknames "Danny Red" and "Cowboy" and had the name "Shovel Head" tattooed on his back, with a large tattoo of a motorcycle. Both had police records, Bright said.

Anyone who knew the two, recognizes their photos or may have seen them prior to the murders is being urged to contact the sheriff's detectives at 1-892-4433. The source of information received will be kept confidential, Bright pledged.

City Council adjourns

Mayor Paul Schuler and several aldermen were in Peoria for a seminar on assessing property for taxation and were unable to attend the council meeting. Eight aldermen were present for the council meeting.

Although seven aldermen constitute a quorum, council rules require that nine of the aldermen vote in favor of any expenditures of city funds.

Present were Second Ward Aldermen Sam Whitmer and Pat Schuman, Third Ward Aldermen Roy Poole and Paul Fisk, Fourth Ward Aldermen Warren Deatour,

HANDGUNS STOLEN Three handguns were stolen from the home of Phillip Clutta, 2218 E. 5th St., he reported at 4:50 p.m. Tuesday. The guns disappeared about two months ago, but he did not realize they had been stolen until he was told a 15-year-old neighborhood boy had been trying to sell guns, including one matching the description of one of his. Romans 14:13 — "Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way."

Faults are as easily seen as though we looked through a magnifying glass. One may possess a thousand good qualities and yet be known for one fault. Paul encourages us not to judge one another, but rather judge ourselves that we be not the cause for anyone else to stumble.

Inward attitude makes all the difference. You may stumble over someone or use their experience as a steppingstone for your own life. The main thing is for us not to stumble! Neither be the occasion of someone else's falling.

Let's step up. Today.

Census data usage meeting

A conference for individuals, agencies, organizations and firms using population and housing census data will be held at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville on Tuesday, March 18.

Sally Ferguson, coordinator in the university's Center for urban and Environmental Research and Services (CURS), said there is no charge for the conference, but preregistration is necessary to ensure participation.

Registration begins at 8:30 a.m., with the conference following shortly thereafter and continuing until 4:30 p.m. Parking and restaurant facilities will be available.

In addition to CURS, the conference will be sponsored by the Regional Commerce and Growth Association, St. Louis chapter of the American Statistical Association Center for Urban Programs at St. Louis University, East-West Gateway Coordinating Council, and St. Louis Metropolitan Census Committee.

Speakers will include representatives from the U.S. Census Bureau, as well as the Missouri State Data Center and the Illinois State Data Center Cooperative.

The conference will cover changes in the methodology, definitions and content in the 1980 census. It will provide information on census products—such as printed reports, microfiche, graphics and computer tapes and access to these products, as well as data user services available in the region.

In addition to population and housing data, economic census data will be discussed if there is time and interest. "Census figures help all sectors of American society understand how our population and housing are changing," Mrs. Ferguson said.

The Census Bureau's population statistics are among the most widely used in the nation, either directly or through secondary sources.

Federal, state and local government study them in connection with transportation, housing, employment, health and education programs and legislation.

Chambers of Commerce and all types of sales and service businesses use the figures in marketing. School districts use them in forecasting enrollment.

Demographers, sociologists, economists, historians and other scholars also find them essential to their studies.

Federal, state and local administrators and planners concerned with housing, employment, transportation, natural resources and utilities.

Contractors, bankers, insurers, forest and mineral industries, manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers, marketing organizations, chambers and utility companies are but a few of the business users, Mrs. Ferguson said.

Researchers in sociology, ecology, architecture and economics also use the data.

Highlighted by census or survey figures, students and the general public are made aware through the media of conditions or developing trends.

To register for the conference, contact the CURS at 692-3032 or write to the 1980 Census Users Conference, in care of CURS, Box 32, SIUE, Edwardsville 62026.

Dividend by Post Corp.

Post Corporation's board of directors last week declared a regular dividend of 12½ cents per share, payable March 31 to shareholders of record March 17.

Post Corp. owns and operates newspapers, broadcast stations and commercial printing plants in nine states.

The corporation earned $3,389,000 or $2.10 per share during 1979, compared with $4,152,000 or $2.30 per share in 1978.

Narrowing margins in the company's newspaper operations, higher interest costs, the increased cost of an improved employee pension plan, and expenses incurred to imp locations produced at several locations were cited by a company spokesman as major causes of the earnings decline.

For the year, operating profit in the company's broadcast division dipped 1.5 percent and the newspaper division 12.4 percent. The company's small but growing commercial printing division is operating profit over 1978 by 128 percent.

The broadcast division continued as the firm's largest division, contributing 65 percent of 1979 operating earnings. The newspaper division accounted for 33 percent and the commercial printing division 2 percent.

A 24 percent increase in interest paid on the company's debt also cut into earnings, the spokesman said.

Pressure on margins at newspapers came from several sources, the spokesman said. He cited softness of advertising demand, especially in classified advertising, that deepened in the second half of the year as high interest rates cut into real estate advertising and the auto industry's troubles reduced car sales.

Also mentioned were costs associated with meshing newly-acquired papers into existing operations in the Boston and Cleveland suburban markets, competitive pressures on prices, especially in the St. Louis suburbs, and increased depreciation charges reflecting improvements made in plant and equipment in recent years.

Post Newspapers, the company's group in the Milwaukee suburbs, again posted a loss in 1979 but reduced its operating deficit by 15 percent.

The firm's broadcast stations had a good year, the spokesman said, with a small drop in earnings caused principally by increased program and news expenses at the company's largest subsidiary, WORX-TV, Rochester, N.Y. This investment in product should begin to pay off in 1980, he said, surveys taken in late 1979 showed substantial increases in the nation's audiences.

12% interest now on tax payments

It will cost everyone more this month to be tardy with tax payments, according to Illinois Revenue Director James B. Zagel.

The interest charge on late payments was raised Feb. 1 from six to 12 percent.

Zagel explained that the Illinois Department of Revenue follows the interest schedules charged (and paid) by the federal Internal Revenue Service. "This interest rate was raised effective Feb. 1, and we raised ours, too," he said.

The department will also be paying out at the higher rate of interest. "All interest due taxpayers from late refunds will also be calculated at the 12 percent per annum figure," Zagel said.

APARTMENT LOOTED
Edna Downs, 4402 Kirkpatrick Homes, reported that $46 worth of food stamps, 15 to 20 valium pills and about 14 other pills were stolen from her apartment between 1:35 and 2:30 p.m. Tuesday. She said her purse had been dumped on the floor and the pills removed. The food stamps had been hidden in the kitchen.

20—Thursday, March 6, 1980, GRANITE CITY (ILL.) PRESS-RECORD

Close, but no cigar

CHAMPAIGN — They say close only counts in horseshoes. Tell that to a certain eleven prep wrestlers from Granite City, and you may get punched in the mouth.

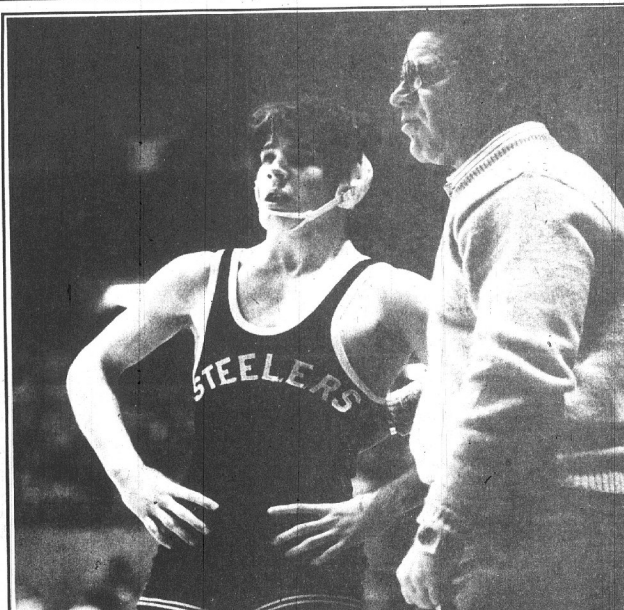

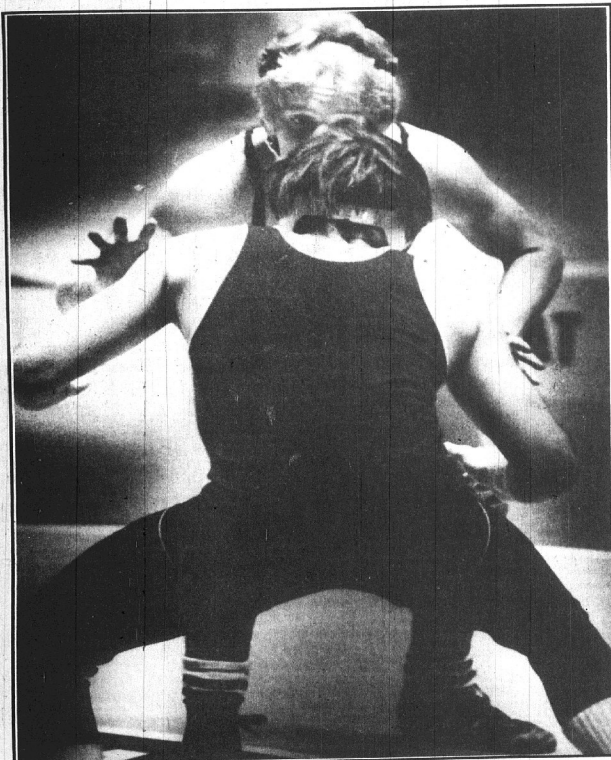

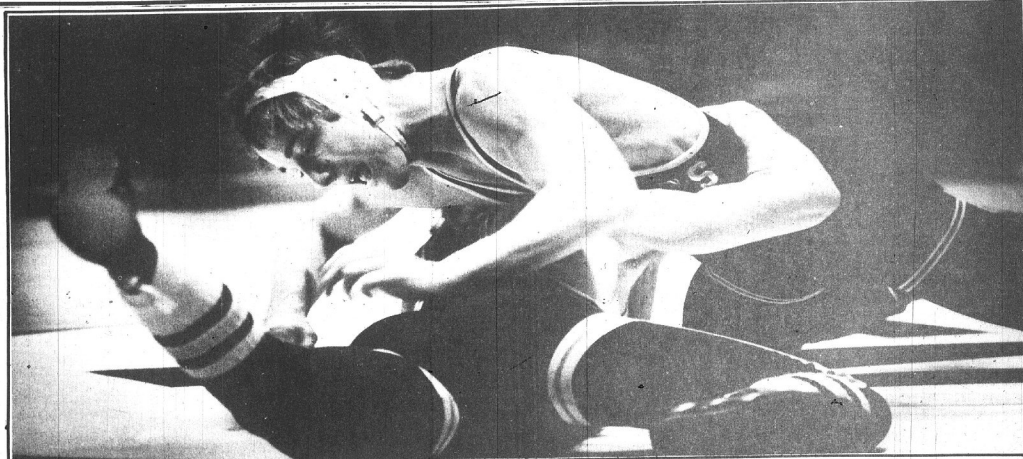

Those eleven grapplers made the trip to the Illinois State High School Wrestling Tournament last Friday and Saturday with high hopes. Six from Granite City North and five from Granite City South. But when all the mats had been rolled up and the medals handed out, only one Granite athlete had, one around his neck.

Dean Perkins of South captured third for the second straight year at 145 pounds. But even he wasn't satisfied. It was oh, so close.

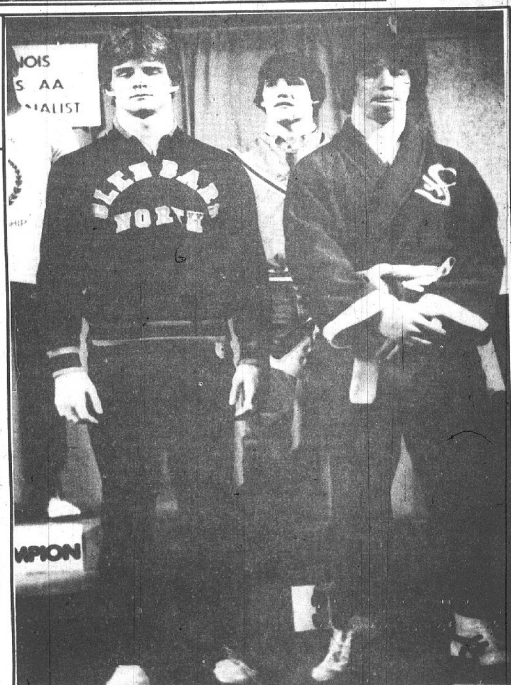

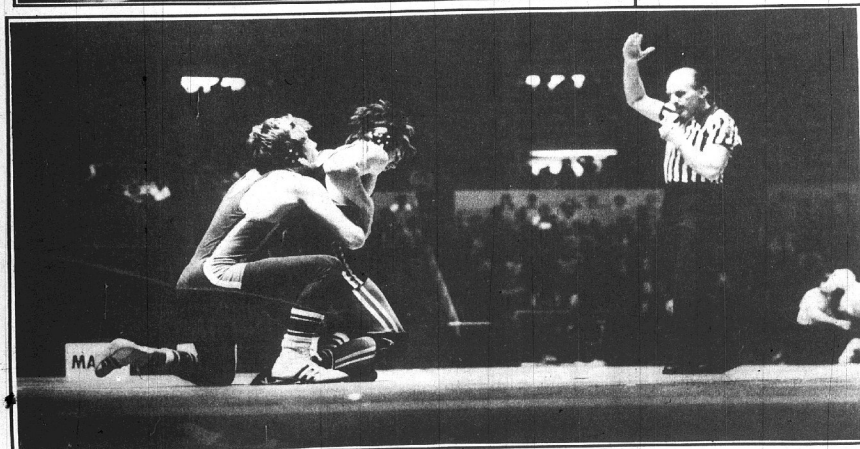

Perkins and the rest of the Granite City contingent fell victim to their opponents over the weekend by the slimmest of margins. A reversal here, an escape there, a last-second takedown or near-fall. It almost started to sound like a broken record.

Gerald Miller, Kevin Shemwell, Bob Kirgan, Mike Robinson and Tracy Patton from North. Scott Polson, Greg Garland, Randy Lupardus, Randy James and Perkins from South. They all fell victim to the close-call.

South finished the tournament with 23 points. North only 9½. But with just a reversal here, an escape there...

Second half surge lifts Trojans past Lebanon

By KEVIN ALLEN
of the Press-Record
VANDALIA — Out in the center of the Vandalia High School gym, amid the litter of used confetti and a throng of jubilant fans, an impromptu photo session was in progress. The Madison Trojans, looking little wilted following their 91-82 win over Lebanon, were all smiles as they mugged for a young girl with an insatiable. As she clicked away, the Trojans posed with raised index fingers. "Number one," somebody yelled. It was still as Madison had been all night. The Trojans simply ran the Greyhounds into the loss column here Tuesday in the opening round game of the Vandalia

Class A Sectional Tournament and earned the chance to meet Bunker Hill in the secditional final tomorrow night. "We had eight guys and we figured they all could play," Madison coach Larry Graham said. "Some nights we don't play as hard as this, but I was pleased. This was one of our better games." The Trojan bench began to figure prominently in the contest along about the middle of the third quarter. After an all-out, frantic first half that ended with Madison ahead 41-39, frequent substitutions allowed Madison to take control of the game. The Trojans ran off ten straight points in the final three minutes of the third quarter and ended up with a 63-55 lead at the end. "The third quarter when we missed some free throws and got behind it really hurt us," Lebanon coach Wendell Johnson said. "Then they began to pick up the tempo and just wore us out." (Continued on Page 23)

Steelers shock Highland

By PETE HAYES
Sports Editor

HIGHLAND — Bob Batey grinned from ear to ear as he stepped to the free throw line for the final time here Wednesday night. With three seconds in the game and his team ahead by three points, he knew there was little the opponents could do. He made both free throws, helping to propel the Granite City North Steelers to a stunning 58-55 victory over Highland in the first round of the Highland Class AA Regional. The win means that North (6-20) will meet fellow-Gateway East Conference school Edwardsville in the championship game Friday night at 7:30.

After North's victories this season, Batey has chimed into the celebration with something about a "victory cigar." Wednesday, after the Steelers had knelt in the locker room and recited the Lord's Prayer, which they do after every game, Batey said, "We better give this cigar to the Lord. We'll get ours Friday."

Batey indeed sparked the Steelers down the stretch. But even though it's a cliche, North's comeback from behind was a total team effort. North's tallest player, 6'2" center Mike York, suddenly became a force on the boards. He grabbed 14 rebounds, including five offensive, and scored 18 points, high for the game.

North coach Bill Ohlendorf was in the kind of mood reporters have seen only five other times this season. "I've got all the time you need," he said after the win. The Steelers weren't celebrating at halftime, however. Trailing 30-19, they had shot a dismal 5-for-23 from the floor, while Highland seemingly could not miss. The Bulldogs, who trailed 30-19, they had shot a dismal 5-for-23 from the floor, while Highland seemingly could not miss. The Bulldogs, who trailed 30-19, they had shot a dismal 5-for-23 from the floor, while Highland seemingly could not miss.

North assistant coach Tom Wyrostek wasn't worried, however. "I went in there and told them, 'You hit five-for-22 and only trail by eleven. You've got this thing in the bag." North did have to work a little the second half to get the lead, but Highland helped out. The Bulldogs suddenly went cold from the floor, hitting 3-for-12 in the third quarter and 7-for-15 in the fourth. North, meanwhile, was 7-for-12 and 6-for-13.

"Highland going cold helped a lot," said Ohlendorf. "It must be the basket at that end of the floor. We couldn't hit down there in the first half."

North scored the first three baskets of the third quarter to climb within five points, 30-25. After Highland scored two straight, the Steelers went back to work again. First it was Batey hitting from 20 feet. Then it was Dennis Page from 15. After a pair of Highland free throws, York rebounded a missed shot by Page and put it in, making it 36-31. Then came what could have been the turning point. Highland's Todd Rinderer was ejected by referee Ed

Highower after throwing the ball at York following a scramble at the baseline at Highland's end of the floor. On his way to the bench, Rinderer uttered a four-letter comment on the proceedings and was given a technical foul. After a player has been ejected, he becomes a part of the bench, thus a two-shot technical instead of the usual one-shot against a player.

Mike Robertson came both free throws for North and brought the Steelers within three points, 36-33. Highland's 6'3" senior Todd Mahoney came one to make it 38-33, but North had gotten too close. The Steelers could smell the lead.

Free throws by York and Page made the gap only one, 38-37 at the end of the period. "Making up those 10 points in the third quarter was the key," said Ohlendorf. The Steelers took the lead for the first time at the beginning of the fourth quarter when York followed up a missed shot, making it 39-38. The lead changed hands four times early in the period, before Highland again grabbed it and stretched it to five points, where it stayed most of the quarter. With 1:40 left, Page bombed one from 25 feet and gave the Steelers the lead 50-49. After Batey was fouled by Lee Zolnier, he began his trek to the free throw line. Batey made it 52-49, then 53-49 after another foul. After Highland got within two, Batey was fouled, but missed the front end of a one-and-one.

But there was Robertson. He rebounded Batey's missed free throw, put it in and was fouled by Mahoney. He made the free throw, making it 55-51 with 12 seconds left. The North bench erupted.

A Highland basket made it 56-53 before Batey stepped to the line for the last time. "We finally started doing the little things right that have been killing us in the close games all season," said Ohlendorf. "I hope we can keep it up."

Kahoks humble East-Side

By RICK WELLS

COLLINSVILLE — A betting man could have made a lot of money. Few would have expected the Kahoks to beat East St. Louis by 13 points in the first game of the Collinsville Boys Class AA Regional Basketball Tournament.

They did. After a shaky first quarter for both teams, Collinsville took charge, dominated the second and fourth quarters, and finally defeated East St. Louis, 72-59.

Surprised? So was Gene Catalpa. "When we beat a team of that caliber by that many points in the first game of the regional, I've got to be pleased with everyone," Collinsville's coach said after the victory.

The game had other surprises, too. Junior Kent Parker, in only his second start for the Kahoks, scored 14 points. Sophomore Jim McConkey, in perhaps his finest effort ever, scored 11 points and had nine rebounds before fouling out late in the game.

And, too, James Douglas didn't do much for the Flyers. The 6-8, 195-pound All-State senior has been scoring 19 points and pulling down 10 rebounds per game. Against the Kahoks, he was held to 11 points and four rebounds.

Then there was a slam-dunk. With three 6-8 players on the court, a slam-dunk wouldn't exactly have been surprising. But this one came from 6-6 senior Dave Burg for the Kahoks. It was, to say the least, impressive. But in a game of surprises, there were also some very predictable events. First, Collinsville's All-State representative, center Bill Mosier, scored 27 points and had 13 rebounds to lead the game in both categories.

And, of course, Catalpa was ecstatic about the win. Finally, it was no surprise, East St. Louis coach Coy Nunn felt nothing but "sour grapes."

"We've had problems all during the year with getting together," he said outside the losers locker room. "But that's not the reason we lost tonight." Why did the Flyers lose, coach?

"No comment on that." Was East St. Louis' game plan to go out and shoot 25 pointers?

"No. Our game plan was to play basketball tonight. But for some reason we couldn't play basketball here tonight."

What was that reason? "No comment." How about the officiating?

"No comment. All I will say is that I noticed a few things on the floor that other people didn't notice. I'm not a good person to interview tonight. We couldn't play basketball."

"For anyone who viewed the basketball game, that's their prerogative to view the game the way they wanted to view it," Nunn said.

"I've been here before, and I understand the system. Isn't that Illinois Bell that advertises 'The system works'?"

Bunker Hill holds off Vandalia charge

VANDALIA — Bunker Hill ran its record to 25-5 here Wednesday night with a 64-57 victory over the host team in the Vandalia Class A Sectional Tournament.

The victory means that the Minutemen will face Madison's Trojans Friday at 7:30 p.m. for the Sectional championship and the right to advance to the Charleston Super-Sectional Tuesday at Eastern Illinois University's Lantz Gymnasium. The Vandalia winner will face the winner of the Bridgeport (Red Hill) Sectional, either Lawrenceville or Teutopolis. With only two minutes left in the game, Bunker Hill's Minutemen held a slim 55-54 lead on the Vandals. But a critical three-point play gave them the boost they needed to go on to the victory.

That three-point play came about when Bunker Hill's Doug Sauerwein made the first of a one-and-one free throw situation, but missed the second. But teammate Rick Simms tipped in the missed shot, and the Minutemen were off and running.

Trailing late in the contest, Vandalia was forced to foul, but it didn't help. Bunker Hill made four more free throws down the stretch.

Sauerwein had 22 points for Bunker Hill, while David Rademacher scored 16 for Vandalia. In other playoff action around Southern Illinois, Okawville beat Ciderella team Red Bud 71-50 at Wednesday in the semifinals at the Pinckneyville Class A Sectional. The Rockets will play the host team Friday night for the championship. Pinckneyville stunned Mounds-Meridian Tuesday night. Mounds ousted highly-ranked Cairo in last week's regional action.

In Class AA regional action Wednesday, Collinsville beat defending champ East St. Louis 72-59 at Collinsville, Belleville East beat Belleville Alhaff 74-50 at Belleville East and Mount Vernon downed West Frankfort 79-55 at Mount Vernon. Tuesday, East St. Louis beat Lincoln at Granite City South in overtime at Collinsville. Centralia beat Harrisburg at Mount Vernon and Belleville west upset top-seeded Cahokia at Belleville East. Friday, Collinsville will face Lincoln, East will play West and Mount Vernon will play Centralia for regional championships.

Second

An early casualty to Madison's relentless pressure was Lebanon's Shelby Brooks. The Greyhounds leading scorer missed much of the second half after complaining about feeling weak.

"When you don't have a guy like Brooks in there producing like he's done all year you're obviously going to be hurt," Johnson said. "I found out about him being sick about the time everyone else did. After he was out we just never came back."

In the fourth quarter, the Trojans pushed their 10-point advantage to 14 points with about three minutes to play. The Greyhounds managed to quickly cut that to nine, minutes later, but the Trojans used up the last two minutes and coasted in with a nine-point win.

"Fatigue took over in the second half," Johnson said. "But I'm not going to make excuses. We lost to a very good club."

Just how good the Trojans were Tuesday was indicated by the scoring figures. Pat Hatter led with 27 points, but Morris Hughes had 21, Charles Claggett 18, and Kerry Guest 13.

In the first half, every time someone got their hands on the ball they'd score," Graham said. "But you'd better be ready to play like that against Lebanon."

Both teams appeared equally prepared to go full tilt from the opening tip. It was basket-for-basket in the first quarter, but Madison emerged with a 20-18 lead. The furious pace continued in the second quarter as both teams added 18 more points, and the Trojans held on for a two-point halftime advantage.

The third quarter, though clearly belonged to Madison. "They just had better hustle than we did," Johnson said. "They were beating us down with their break."

Mendoza in finals

ST. LOUIS — Granite City Boxing Club's Danny Mendoza will fight here Saturday night in the finals of the St. Louis Golden Gloves Tournament at Keil Auditorium.

The finals are set Saturday night at 7:30 p.m. at Keil.

Shemwell 20-11

MARYVILLE — Northwest Missouri State University's 1979-80 wrestling season came to a close over the weekend at the NCAA Division II Championships at Omaha, Neb. Head Coach Dr. Gary Collins sent a two-man contingent to the meet, and Harlan, Iowa, senior Lee Schechinger (177) pinned Guido DeLuca of Cal State, Pa., in 4:57 in the first round, but was eliminated by Chicago State's Derek Hardy in the second round. Hardy, who finished fourth at this weight class, pinned Schechinger in 3:59.

Granite City junior heavyweight Jim Shemwell lost an 8-2 decision to eventual champion Ron Essink of Grand Valley State in the first round. Shemwell was pinned in 7:08 by North Dakota's Jerome Larson in the consolation round.

Schechinger, who won the MIAA championship at 177 a week ago, finishes his season with a 26-9-1 record, the seventh best one-season mark in school history. A transfer from Iowa Central Community College, Lee finishes his career at Northwest with a 49-21-3 record.

Shemwell, the runner-up at heavyweight at the MIAA meet, ends his season with a 20-11 record. Cal State-Bakersfield repeated as the NCAA Division II team champion.

PONDEROSA'S PLAYER OF THE WEEK 'Scrapper of the Week'

GRANITE CITY — Call him a scrapper. Call him tenacious. A hustler. A team player.

Some even call him a little bit crazy. But Granite City North's pugnacious guard, Bob Batey, is a player. There's no doubt about that matter. Batey, who also is a starter on the North soccer team and a standout shortstop for the Steelers baseball team, played a key role Friday and Wednesday in two straight victories for North. For that reason, he has been named the Press-Record's Player of the Week.

Friday in the Steelers' home finale against Roxana, Batey scored 12 points and had several key steals in his team's 78-51 victory.

Wednesday in North's stunning win over

BOB BATEY

Mississippi Valley Conference champ Highland in the Highland Class A Regional, he scored 12 points and had six rebounds, four steals and on assist. His free throws in the final seconded the win.

Indian stockade excavation planned

Joe Abell, president of the Cahokia Mounds Museum
Society, and Bill Iseninger, interpreter at the Cahokia Mounds State Historic site, have announced that applications are available for the 1980 Archaeological Field School at Cahokia Mounds.

The field school is open to the public. No previous education is not required,
since training is provided during the session.

The only requirements are that a person be 16 years or older, in good health, and have a genuine interest in learning and doing archaeology. Abell said

younger students may accompany a parent who is participating.

Iseninger, who directs the field school, said excavations will continue uncovering more of the stockade system.

The stockade was a large
log wall, much like a fort,
that enclosed the central portion of the prehistoric Indian city here.

Excavations so far have revealed the wall was built at least four times.

"What is interesting," Iseninger said, "is that the stockade was built through earlier habitation areas;
students find lots of pottery,

flint tools, animal bones, and other things.

"Many house floors,
storage pits and refuse pits
are also found and carefully excavated."

Students are instructed in the fundamentals of archaeology.

They split their day between field work (surveying, digging, mapping and screening) and lab work (washing, sorting and cataloging the artifacts).

Six two-week sessions are being offered, beginning June 2, June 16, June 30, July 14, July 28 and Aug. 11.

Students work eight hours a day and 5 1/2 days a week.

All tools and equipment are provided but food and lodging are the responsibility of the participants.

Tuition for each session is $75, which is required one week before each session begins. Members of the Cahokia Mounds Museum
Society receive a 10 percent discount, Abell said.

According to Iseninger,
"More women than men
usually enroll in the field school, many of them school teachers who take this experience back to the classroom."

"Some high school
students and graduates
attend and see experience archaeology, to see if that is what they want to go into in college.

"Many adults have wanted to do something like this all their life and never had the opportunity, and this is one of the few places in the country where they can participate in 'hands-on'

archaeology.

"We've even get retired people participating."

For applications and more information about the field
school and the Museum Society, Quad-Cities may write or call: Cahokia
Mounds Museum Society,
7850 Collinsville Road, East
St. Louis, Ill. 62201; (618) 344-

Talks heard by

750 Witnesses

Jehovah's Witnesses from the Granite City area were among the 750 delegates who attended a religious assembly held at their convention hall at Spanish Lake, north St. Louis County,
Saturday and Sunday.

Francis Clanton,
spokesman for the group,
said that talks heard by the delegates during the two-day assembly were based on what the Bible has to say about being obedient to God at a time when the world is filled with those disobedient to authorities of every kind.

The talk addressed to the public on Sunday afternoon was entitled, "To Whom Does the Obedience of the People Belong?" It was delivered by A. L. Franck, district overseer for congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses in the metropolitan St. Louis area.

"A man who is dis-
obedient to divine laws has led to further
degradation of mankind,
creating a climate of fear and distrust throughout the world. Obedience of God's installed King, Jesus Christ, will put everything in position to receive the benefits of His government."

"Now is the time each person must appreciate the urgency of answering the question of to whom does obedience belong? 'God will soon make the answer to that questions unmistakably clear.'"

Products should be kept in their original containers and placed well out of the reach of children.

To avoid long-term storage problems completely, it's a good idea to buy only the quality of material needed to do the job. Get rid of any leftover products by disposing of them according to the directions on the label.

Remember, don't let "do-it-yourself projects" turn into "do-it-yourself" nigh-mares."

Another example of danger by design is the highly volatile contact cement. A tiny amount used to repair wall tile presents little danger. But the gallon amounts needed to lay a whole floor of tiles are another story.

Proper storage is also essential in preventing accidents.

Vaporizing liquids, varnish removers, and tile glues can be highly flammable.
Solvents, such as benzene, toluene, and xylene, can cause soreness and infla-mation if splashed on skin.

You may want to wear plastic or rubber gloves and safety glasses to protect hands and eyes from hazardous products.

It's also important to wash off products which burn or damage skin tissues if you should spill them on your

20th census drawing near; guarantee of confidentiality

The 1980 census, which begins April 1, will mark the 20th time in the nation's history that Americans have counted themselves.

The number of questions and the use of census computers have both grown considerably since the first count, and quill pens have yielded to computers, but the census has never lost its roots in the Constitution. When the delegates to the Constitutional Convention met in 1787, they decided that population distribution should be the basis for direct taxation and for apportionment in the House of Representatives, so they approved a Constitutional requirement that every person in the nation be counted at least once every ten years, beginning in 1790.

For nearly two centuries since then, the decennial census has monitored the growth and development of the nation, yielding invaluable information about ourselves as a people: who we are, what we do, how we live. Taken together, these ten-year assessments of the developing republic form the backbone of our history.

Congress appointed Secretary of State Thomas Jefferson to direct the first census in 1790. Jefferson delegated the responsibility to the 17 United States marshals, who in turn hired as many assistants as they needed.

These census takers, or enumerators, were paid between one-third cent and two cents for every inhabitant they counted in the 16 existing states and the Southwest Territory.

They traveled by foot, boat, or horseback through areas with few roads and bridges were scarce, town and county boundaries were vague or unknown, and many superstitious or un-trusting citizens were uncooperative. Despite arguments from some Members of Congress, led by James Madison, that the census ought to collect facts of use to agriculture, commerce, banking, insurance, transportation, schools, libraries, newspapers, crime, taxes and religion. Hand tallying led to many errors, but no attempt was made to verify the data.

By 1880, with 50 million people living in 38 states and nine territories, the U.S. marshals could no longer handle the census. Congress created a temporary civilian census office headed by a presidentially-appointed superintendent of the census.

This new office was soon swamped by the record number of census questions in 1880. After the publishing of 21,203 pages of reports through 1888, the work stopped even though there was more data to be tabulated and published.

About that time, a former census office employee, Dr. Herman Hollerith, patented a punch card system of electrical-mechanical tabulation that was destined to revolutionize information processing.

Hollerith's system consisted of two steps. First, an operator using one machine punched tiny holes in cards representing answers on individual census forms. Then another machine "read" the cards with a set of needlelike small wires.

Wherever there was a hole in the card, the corresponding wire was able to make electrical contact with a metal post below, thus closing a circuit and signaling a set of dials which recorded totals.

Hollerith's method was immensely faster than the primary manual methods of tabulation that preceded it, and by one estimate his

Nearly 170 people filled the Madison Memorial Center last week as Explorer Post 10-4 held its ninth annual family night.

The post, sponsored by Madison Unit 110 of the Police Benevolent and Protective Association, has been in operation since October 1969.

The Explorers gave out special awards to persons who had been active in supporting their activities. Those receiving certificates of appreciation were: the First National Bank in Madison, Joseph Gudac, Mike Macek, and Madison County Sheriff Emil Toffant.

Schermer went on to praise the work of the Explorers in their support of the entire Boy Scout program of the Cahokia Mound Council.

Marsala said all the police club members are proud to sponsor the Explorers and every member of the club police explorers and then took them on an in-depth tour of the more than 100 years old county jail that is still in existence. That visit was followed by a tour of the new sheriff's facility and the new county jail.

Leo Schermer, vice-president of the Cahokia Mound Scout Council, presented the post charter to Officer Gary Marsala, representing Unit 110.

Schermer said, "The entire city of Madison should be proud of the credit Post 10-4 has brought to the city and to the police department."

Schermer went on to praise the work of the Explorers in their support of the entire Boy Scout program of the Cahokia Mound Council.

Marsala said all the police club members are proud to sponsor the Explorers and every member of the club supports the Explorers and their activities.

Schermer paid particular praise to "Mick" Strange, founder and coordinator of the post.

Post President Jason Kieffer, Post Adviser Officer William Wiedner and Officer Marsala then presented the 1980 officers with their insignia of rank.

The new officers, in addition to Kieffer, are: John Bargiel, first vice-president; Mike Schaffner, second vice-president; David Mooshegian, secretary; Lonnie Smith, treasurer; Ronnie Grzywacz, senior squad leader; and John Lake and Willie Smith, squad leaders.

Guests attending the event included: Ed Ray Dubish, past president of the Madison Board of Police Commissioners; Madison Police Commissioner Casimir Krakowicki, Madison Aldermen Donald Garrett, Frank Dalko and Elmer Smith, G. Rollin Henn, Sam Dymas, president of the Madison Board of Education, Dr. Thomas Layloff, Circuit Judge Charles W. Chapman, Mrs. Helen Strange and Mrs. Dorothy Shabo.

Special recognition was given to John R. Hooks, the first president of Post 10-4, who is still active as a member of the adult committee.

Col. Suzanne Hart, police commissioner of the St. Louis Police Department, was the guest speaker.

Col. Hart called for citizen involvement in fighting "crime in the streets." She said, in referring to Explorer Post 10-4, "Madison in Explorer Post 10-4, has what other cities only dream about having." She referred to the new blue uniforms the Explorers were wearing as "beautiful and really spiffy."

In addition to a certificate of appreciation to Col. Hart, Post President Kieffer presented her with a large cake inscribed with "Welcome to Madison, Col. Hart."

The cake was provided by City Clerk John Belford, a member of the post committee.

A semi-hot luck dinner preceded the program, with fried chicken from Volosh Catering and ravioli furnished by Edray Foods.

Prior to the opening of the meeting, a contest was held between the Explorers and their parents as to which group could yell "10-4" the loudest. Judge Chapman and Dr. Layloff, contest judges, ruled the parents the winners. The decision was contested, but not appealed.

'10-4' family night fills Madison Center

In the history of the Census Bureau, no census employee has ever been charged with a breach of this confidentiality.

In 1902, Congress established the Bureau of the Census as a permanent organization, with responsibility not only for the decennial census, but for interim censuses and surveys to maintain current statistical information to meet a variety of needs.

President Franklin Roosevelt's New Deal programs, made up of unprecedented demands for accurate, up-to-date information on employment, income, wages, age and sex distribution of the population, employment experience, and so forth.

Later, wartime emergency information related to manpower and production made heavy demands on the Census Bureau's burgeoning statistical files.

Responding to expanded requirements, the Census Bureau in the 1930s developed another innovation, called sampling—the technique of choosing a small number of individuals in such a way that their responses provide an accurate indication of the whole population. Sampling enabled the Census Bureau to provide a wide range of useful, relatively reliable information on a regular and continuing basis.

The volume of information collected, however, continued to exceed the Bureau's mechanical capacity to process it, making necessary in the 1940s another technological breakthrough.

While electronic computers were being developed for scientific use during the years of World War II, the idea of adapting a computer for mass data processing was a radically new one. In 1948, the Census Bureau, in partnership with the National Bureau of Standards, contracted for a unique general purpose electronic digital computing system known as UNIVAC.

It took until April 1951 to install the system. It was successful. It set new worldwide standards in the electronic tabulation of vast amounts of data.

Twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week for the next 14 months, the new equipment tabulated data from the 1950 census.

UNIVAC I continued working until retirement in 1963. Then it went to the Smithsonian Institution, where it is still on display. Innovations in electronic data processing continue to increase the speed and capacity of the Bureau's work. In 1970, one clerk using a pencil could process about 30 items per minute; in 1980, the most sophisticated data processing system in the history of the Bureau will tabulate 45 million characters per minute.

Soon after 86 million households answer and return their 1980 census questionnaires, each will be checked at the nearest of 409 district offices to see that all questionnaires have been answered completely, and then the questionnaires will be organized and shipped to one of three processing centers.

There, a camera will photograph on microfilm the names and answers in questionnaires, but not the addresses, which are face down during filming.

The microfilm will then be "read" by a FOSDIC scanner—a "film optical scanning device for input to computers."

That device reads the handwritten names but picks up the filled-in dots which represent census answers.

The answers will be transmitted at the speed of light via digital transmission lines to Census Bureau headquarters in Suitland, Md., for transfer to magnetic tape for the Computer.

No name or address ever enters any computer, which helps to guarantee that information traceable to a specific individual or household will not be released.

By Jan. 1, 1981, the first 1980 population report must be ready for the president.

After nine months of around-the-clock processing, the Census Bureau will have fulfilled its first responsibility: to provide a count of the nation's population by state, for purposes of congressional apportionment.

Three months later, more detailed population counts for counties, cities and other political subdivisions must be provided to the governors of the 50 states for potential use in the redistricting of their legislatures.

A spokesman sums it up: "The historical importance of the census is clear. With continued public trust and confidence, the Census Bureau will carry forward a tradition of nearly 200 years of impartial, professional, and non-political service as the fact-finder for the nation."

ASK ME ABOUT TV

By VAL CAREW

BOY'S BEAU — I have a question about the movie "Orca," which I saw on TV. My friends won't believe me when I tell them the name of the girl who had a leg chewed off. I think she is great, but I'm not giving you a clue about her identity. You tell me who she is. — Bill K.

Well, I know who you think she is and you're right. It was

Bo Derek, now a super sexpot,

thanks to the hit film "10."

Bet your friends will be impressed with you now.

KIEL HAULED — Is Richard Kiel, who was in "Silver

Streak" and "The Longest

Yard," still alive? — Bill

Frank

Yes, he is. Possibly you are confused because of the death of Ted Cassidy, who like Kiel,

was an extremely tall man who often played menacing

monsters.

Steve Guttenberg (right) stars as a blind college student who is determined to be treated as normal, and L. Taylor portrays his sighted roommate, in "To Race the Wind," Wednesday, March 12, on CBS.

Sr. Citizens olympic set

Participation in the annual Senior Citizen Olympics was the main topic of discussion of the Granite City Senior Citizen Council meeting held Monday at the Township Center.

Mrs. Ruby Corbit, president, presided at the session and opened with the Lord's Prayer. Members repeated the pledge to the flag in unison.

Mrs. Corbit noted the olympic program will be conducted at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville on May 14-15.

Older American Month will be observed at an affair planned for May 13 at the Collinsville Firemen's Hall. She added the Granite City senior citizens will have a booth featuring homemade items, homemade jelly and other articles to be offered for sale. Members are invited to donate articles for the fund raising project.

Also planned during the session was a hobo dance set for March 26 at the Township Hall. Those attending are to bring a sack lunch for the 5:30 p.m. dinner hour with dancing to follow at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Corbit added.

The president announced the drivers license classes are to be conducted at 9 a.m. on March 19 and 20 at the hall, for those who are to take a drivers examination and test.
